My correspondence with Gary Fethke is below. These two email are in response to a message that I sent to the entire college.

I have no correspondence with either Roubillard or Stead during September.

There seem to me to be a whole lot of folks on campus who are ready to move on and get to work now. Unfortunately, they are not the vocal group. I am hopeful this will all die down soon.

Thanks for your support, Gary.

Sarah,

Nicely worded statement and, yes, you are certainly right to be as transparent and open as possible, without violating confidentiality agreements. I think you have handled yourself with the press very well indeed.

I do hope that there is enough support for Harreld to give him, and us, a real chance to succeed.

Gary
