> Just thought of you recently when working/writing some strategy applications in higher education. Accenture proposed a $17m reduction in shared-service spending for the University of Michigan, which is .01 percent of their 2014 GEF budget. All hell broke loose, and there are now over 1100 signatures on a petition by faculty and staff demanding the proposal be replaced, not surprisingly by the status quo. No wonder Mary Sue is looking forward to July.
