Here is another nomination to consider.

Can you also give us the process you would want us to follow with these candidates. Should member of the Committe for example reach to these potential candidates if they know them? Or should we send everything to you regardless.

Thanks for your help

Jean

FYI.

What is our process for following up on these nominations, Jean? Would you like me to take any action here?

Dear Sarah

I hope all is well with you and with the Presidential search. I?m writing to suggest a possible candidate. His name is Ron Liebowitz. He is stepping down this month as president of Middlebury College. I don?t know if he would be interested in taking on another presidency so quickly, but if we could get him we would be very fortunate. I?ve known Ron and worked with him during the summers for many years, first when he was provost and then as president of Middlebury. (I?ve taught and directed at Bread Loaf, part of Middlebury, for 40 summers.) He is highly intelligent, creative, collaborative, and an amazing fund raiser. He?s also a very personable guy, a natural leader, unafraid and bold. Middlebury, of course, is not like Iowa, but that doesn?t matter ? Ron would be a dynamic force from day one. If you?d like to learn more about him, see the Middlebury College magazine, spring 2015. There are several articles about him.

As far as I know he hasn?t announced his intentions after leaving the presidency. He?s a young man and there will be lots of doors opening to him. I encourage you to look his direction. Many thanks.

Alan
